Requirements To Report Transactions and To Keep Records Application of Parts 5 and 6

~~5 The provisions of this Part are subject to the provisions of Parts 5 and 6.~~

Financial Entities~~Transactions Conducted by Employees or Agents or Mandataries~~

[SOR/2016-153, s. 19(E)]

~~6 (1) A financial services cooperative is engaged in a business or profession for the purposes of paragraph 5(i) of the Act. Where a person who is subject to the requirements of these Regulations is an employee of a person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (l) of the Act, it is the employer rather than the employee who is responsible for meeting those requirements.~~

~~(2) A credit union central is engaged in a business or profession for the purposes of paragraph 5(j) of the Act when it offers financial services to a person, or to an entity that is not a member of that credit union central. If a person or entity that is subject to the requirements of these Regulations, other than a life insurance broker or agent, is an agent or mandatary of, or is authorized to act on behalf of, another person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (l) of the Act, it is that other person or entity rather than the agent or mandatary or the authorized person or entity, as the case may be, that is responsible for meeting those requirements.~~

7 (1) A financial entity shall report the following transactions and information to the Centre: For the purposes of these Regulations, a person acting on behalf of their employer is considered to be acting on behalf of a third party except when the person is depositing cash into the employer's business account.

(a) the receipt from a person or entity of an amount of $10,000 or more in cash in a single transaction, together with the information set out in Schedule 1;

(b) the initiation, at the request of a person or entity, of an international electronic funds transfer of $10,000 or more in a single transaction, together with the information set out in Schedule 2;

(c) the final receipt of an international electronic funds transfer of $10,000 or more in a single transaction, together with the information set out in Schedule 3; and

(d) the receipt from a person or entity of an amount of $10,000 or more in virtual currency in a single transaction, together with the information set out in Schedule 4.

(2) A financial entity is not required to report the transaction and information under paragraph (1)(a), if the amount is received from another financial entity or a public body or from a person who is acting on behalf of a client that is a financial entity or public body.

Third Party Determination

8 (1) A financial entity is not required to report the transaction and information under paragraph 7(1)(a) if the following conditions are met: Every person or entity that is required to keep a large cash transaction record under these Regulations shall take reasonable measures to determine whether the individual who in fact gives the cash in respect of which the record is kept is acting on behalf of a third party.

(a) the entity from which or on whose behalf the financial entity receives the amount is a corporation that carries on business as an establishment described in sector 22, 44 (excluding codes 4411, 4412 and 44831) or 45 (excluding code 45392), or code 481, 482, 485 (excluding code 4853), 51711, 51751, 61121 or 61131 of the North American Industry Classification System as that sector or code read on January 31, 2003;

(b) the amount received is deposited into an account held by the corporation with the financial entity in respect of that business;

(c) the corporation has had

(i) for the entire preceding 24-month period, an account in respect of that business with the financial entity, or

(ii) an account in respect of that business with another financial entity for a continuous period of 24 months ending immediately before the corporation opened an account with the financial entity;

(d) the financial entity has records that indicate that the corporation has deposited an amount of $10,000 or more in cash into that account on an average of at least twice a week during the preceding 12 months;

(e) the cash deposits made by the corporation are consistent with the corporation's usual practice in respect of the business;

(f) the financial entity has taken reasonable measures to determine the source of the cash for those deposits; and

(g) the financial entity provides to the Centre the information set out in Schedule 5.

(2) A corporation referred to in paragraph (1)(a) does not include one that carries on a business related to pawnbroking or whose principal business is the sale of vehicles, vessels, farm machinery, aircraft, mobile homes, jewellery, precious stones, precious metals, antiquities or art. Where the person or entity determines that the individual is acting on behalf of a third party, the person or entity shall keep a record that sets out

(a) the third party's name, address and date of birth and the nature of the principal business or occupation of the third party, if the third party is an individual;

(b) if the third party is an entity, the third party's name and address and the nature of the principal business of the third party, and, if the entity is a corporation, the entity's incorporation number and its place of issue; and

(c) the nature of the relationship between the third party and the individual who gives the cash.

(3) A financial entity that, in accordance with subsection (1), does not report a transaction and information Where the person or entity is not able to determine whether the individual is acting on behalf of a third party but there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the individual is doing so, the person or entity shall keep a record that

(a) shall report to the Centre a change to the corporation's name or address, the nature of the corporation's business or the corporation's incorporation number within 15 days after the day on which the change is made; and indicates whether, according to the individual, the transaction is being conducted on behalf of a third party; and

(b) shall, at least once every 12 months,

(i) verify that the conditions referred to in subsection (1) continue to be met,

(ii) ensure that a senior officer of the financial entity confirms that those conditions continue to be met, and

(iii) send a report to the Centre setting out the corporation's name and address and the name of the senior officer who gave the confirmation, describes the reasonable grounds to suspect that the individual is acting on behalf of a third party.

Information on Beneficiaries

[SOR/2007-122, s. 24]

11 A financial entity shall keep a large virtual currency transaction record in respect of every amount of $10,000 or more in virtual currency that it receives from a person or entity in a single transaction, unless the amount is received from another financial entity or a public body or from a person who is acting on behalf of a client that is a financial entity or public body. A trust company that is required to keep a record in respect of an inter vivos trust in accordance with these Regulations shall keep a record that sets out the name and address of each of the beneficiaries that are known at the time that the trust company becomes a trustee for the trust and

~~(a) if the beneficiary is a person, their date of birth and the nature of their principal business or their occupation, as applicable; and~~

~~(b) if the beneficiary is an entity, the nature of their principal business.~~

12 A financial entity shall keep the following records in respect of every account that it opens and of every transaction that is conducted with it, other than those referred to in section 13 or 14:

~~(a) every signature card;~~

(b) a record for each account holder and every other person — up to three, in the case of a business account — who is authorized to give instructions in respect of the account, containing their name and address, the nature of their principal business or their occupation and, in the case of a person, their date of birth;

(c) if an account holder is a corporation, a copy of the part of its official corporate records that contains any provision relating to the power to bind the corporation in respect of the account or transaction;

(d) a record that sets out the intended use of the account;

(e) a record of every application in respect of the account;

(f) every account operating agreement that it creates or receives in respect of the account;

(g) a deposit slip in respect of every deposit that is made into the account;

(h) every debit and credit memo that it creates or receives in respect of the account, except debit memos that relate to another account at the same branch of the financial entity that created the debit memo;

(i) a copy of every account statement that it sends to an account holder;

(j) every cleared cheque that is drawn on, and a copy of every cleared cheque that is deposited into, the account, unless

(i) the account on which the cheque is drawn and the account into which the cheque is deposited are at the same branch of the financial entity, or

(ii) the following conditions are met:

(A) an image of the cheque has been recorded on microfilm or on an electronic medium,

(B) an image of the cheque can be readily reproduced from the microfilm or electronic medium,

(C) it is possible to readily ascertain where the image of the cheque is recorded, and

(D) the microfilm or electronic medium is kept for a period of at least five years after the day on which the image of the cheque is recorded;

(k) in respect of every credit arrangement that it enters into with a client, a record of the client's financial capacity, the terms of the credit arrangement, the nature of the client's principal business or their occupation and, if the client is a person, the name and address of their business or place of work;

(l) a foreign currency exchange transaction ticket in respect of every foreign currency exchange transaction;

(m) if it receives an amount of $3,000 or more as consideration for the issuance of traveller's cheques, money orders or similar negotiable instruments from a person or entity other than another financial entity or a person who is acting on behalf of a client that is a financial entity, a record

(i) of the date of the receipt,

(ii) of the person's or entity's name and address, the nature of their principal business or their occupation and, in the case of a person, their date of birth,

(iii) of the amount received,

(iv) indicating whether the amount received is in funds or virtual currency and the type and amount of each type of funds and each of the virtual currencies involved,

(v) of the number of every account that is affected by the transaction, the type of account and the name of each account holder,

(vi) of every reference number that is connected to the transaction and has a function equivalent to that of an account number, and

(vii) if the amount received is in virtual currency, of every transaction identifier, including the sending and receiving addresses;

(n) if it redeems one or more money orders that total $3,000 or more at the request of a person or entity, a record of

(i) the date of the redemption,

(ii) the person's or entity's name and address, the nature of their principal business or their occupation and, in the case of a person, their date of birth,

(iii) the total amount of the money order or orders,

(iv) the name of the issuer of each money order,

(v) the number of every account that is affected by the redemption, the type of account and the name of each account holder,

(vi) every reference number that is connected to the redemption and has a function equivalent to that of an account number, and

(vii) if the redemption involves virtual currency, every transaction identifier, including the sending and receiving addresses;

(o) if it initiates an international electronic funds transfer — or any other electronic funds transfer that is a SWIFT MT-103 message or its equivalent — of $1,000 or more at the request of a person or entity, a record of

(i) the date on which the electronic funds transfer is initiated,

(ii) the type and amount of each type of funds that is involved in the initiation,

(iii) the person's or entity's name, address and telephone number, the nature of their principal business or their occupation and, in the case of a person, their date of birth,

(iv) the exchange rates used and their source,

(v) the name, and address of each beneficiary,

(vi) the number of every account that is affected by the initiation, the type of account and the name of each account holder,

(vii) every reference number that is connected to the electronic funds transfer and has a function equivalent to that of an account number, and

(viii) the number of every account that is affected by the electronic funds transfer, other than those referred to in subparagraph (vi);

(p) if it sends an international electronic funds transfer of $1,000 or more that was initiated by another person or entity, a record of

(i) the date on which the electronic funds transfer is sent,

(ii) if it exchanges fiat currencies in the course of sending the electronic funds transfer, the type and amount of each fiat currency that is involved in the exchange,

(iii) the exchange rates used and their source,

(iv) the number of every account that is affected by the electronic funds transfer, the type of account and the name of each account holder,

(v) every reference number that is connected to the electronic funds transfer and has a function equivalent to that of an account number;

(vi) the name and address of the person or entity that requested the initiation of the electronic funds transfer, unless that information was not, despite the taking of reasonable measures, included with the transfer and is not otherwise known,

(vii) the name and address of each beneficiary, unless that information was not, despite the taking of reasonable measures, included with the transfer and is not otherwise known;

(q) if it is the final recipient of an international electronic funds transfer of $1,000 or more, a record of

(i) the date on which the electronic funds transfer is finally received,

(ii) the type and amount of each type of funds that is involved in the final receipt,

(iii) the name and address a of each beneficiary, the nature of their principal business or their occupation and, in the case of a person, their date of birth,

(iv) the date of the remittance,

(v) the exchange rates used for the remittance and their source,

(vi) if the remittance is in funds, the type and amount of each type of funds involved in the remittance,

(vii) if the remittance is not in funds, the type of remittance and its value, if different from the amount of funds finally received,

(viii) the number of every account that is affected by the final receipt or the remittance, the type of account and the name of each account holder,

(ix) every reference number that is connected to the electronic funds transfer and has a function equivalent to that of an account number,

(x) the name and address of the person or entity that requested the initiation of the electronic funds transfer, unless that information was not, despite the taking of reasonable measures, included with the transfer and is not otherwise known,

(xi) the number of every account that is affected by the electronic funds transfer, other than those referred to in subparagraph (viii), and

(r) if it transfers an amount of $1,000 or more in virtual currency at the request of a person or entity, a record of

(i) the date of the transfer,

(ii) the type and amount of each virtual currency that is involved in the transfer,

(iii) the person's or entity's name, address, the nature of their principal business or their occupation and, in the case of a person, their date of birth,

(iv) the name and address of each beneficiary,

(v) the number of every account that is affected by the transaction, the type of account and the name of each account holder,

PART 5

General Provisions

Electronic Funds Transfers

124 (1) For the purposes of section 9.5 of the Act, the prescribed persons or entities are the financial entities, money services businesses, foreign money services businesses and casinos that are required to keep a record under these Regulations in respect of an electronic funds transfer.

(2) For the purposes of section 9.5 of the Act, the prescribed electronic funds transfers are international electronic funds transfers, as well as other electronic funds transfers within the meaning of subsection 1(2) that are SWIFT MT-103 messages or their equivalent.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph 9.5(a) of the Act, the prescribed information is

(a) the beneficiary's name and address; and

(b) if applicable, the account number or other reference number, if any, of the beneficiary.

(4) Every person or entity referred in subsection (1) must develop and apply written risk-based policies and procedures for determining, in the case of an electronic funds transfer received by them that, despite reasonable measures taken under paragraph 9.5(b) of the Act, does not have included with it any of the information required under paragraph 9.5(a) of the Act, whether they should suspend or reject the electronic funds transfer and any follow-up measures to be taken.

Foreign Currency or Virtual Currency

125 If a transaction is conducted in a foreign currency or virtual currency, the amount of the transaction shall be converted into Canadian dollars using

(a) the exchange rate that is published by the Bank of Canada for that foreign currency or virtual currency and that is in effect at the time of the transaction; or

(b) if no exchange rate is published by the Bank of Canada for that foreign currency or virtual currency, the exchange rate that the person or entity would use in the ordinary course of business at the time of the transaction.

Transactions That Are Deemed To Be Single

126 If a person or entity that is required under these Regulations to report the receipt from a person or entity of an amount in cash or to keep a large cash transaction record receives amounts in cash that total $10,000 or more in two or more transactions that are made within 24 consecutive hours, those transactions are deemed to be a single transaction of $10,000 or more if that person or entity knows that

(a) the transactions are conducted by the same person or entity;

(b) the transactions are conducted on behalf of the same person or entity; or

(c) the amounts are for the same beneficiary.

127 (1) If a person or entity that is required to report the initiation of an international electronic funds transfer under these Regulations initiates two or more international electronic funds transfers that total $10,000 or more within 24 consecutive hours, those transactions are deemed to be a single transaction of $10,000 or more if that person or entity knows that

(a) the electronic funds transfers are initiated at the request of the same person or entity;

(b) the requests are made on behalf of the same person or entity; or

(c) the amounts are for the same beneficiary.

(2) Paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply if the requests to initiate the electronic funds transfers are made by or on behalf of

(a) a public body;

(b) a corporation or trust that has minimum net assets of $75 million on its last audited balance sheet, whose shares or units are traded on a Canadian stock exchange or a stock exchange designated under subsection 262(1) of the Income Tax Act and that operates in a country that is a member of the Financial Action Task Force; or

(c) an administrator of a pension fund that is regulated under federal or provincial legislation.

128 (1) If a person or entity that is required to report the final receipt of an electronic funds transfer under these Regulations finally receives two or more electronic funds transfers that total $10,000 or more within 24 consecutive hours, those transactions are deemed to be a single transaction of $10,000 or more if that person or entity knows that

(a) the electronic funds transfers are initiated at the request of the same person or entity; or

(b) the amounts are for the same beneficiary.

(2) Paragraph (1)(b) does not apply if the beneficiary is

(a) a public body;

(b) a corporation or trust that has minimum net assets of $75 million on its last audited balance sheet, whose shares or units are traded on a Canadian stock exchange or a stock exchange designated under subsection 262(1) of the Income Tax Act and that operates in a country that is a member of the Financial Action Task Force; or

(c) an administrator of a pension fund that is regulated under federal or provincial legislation.

129 (1) If a person or entity that is required under these Regulations to report the receipt from a person or entity of an amount in virtual currency or to keep a large virtual currency transaction record receives amounts in virtual currency that total $10,000 or more in two or more transactions that are made within 24 consecutive hours, those transactions are deemed to be a single transaction of $10,000 or more if that person or entity knows that

- (a) the transactions are conducted by the same person or entity;
- (b) the transactions are conducted on behalf of the same person or entity; or
- (c) the amounts are for the same beneficiary.

(2) Paragraph (1)(c) does not apply if the beneficiary is

- (a) a public body;
- (b) a corporation or trust that has minimum net assets of $75 million on its last audited balance sheet, whose shares or units are traded on a Canadian stock exchange or a stock exchange designated under subsection 262(1) of the Income Tax Act and that operates in a country that is a member of the Financial Action Task Force; or
- (c) an administrator of a pension fund that is regulated under federal or provincial legislation.

130 If, within 24 consecutive hours, a casino makes two or more disbursements that total $10,000 or more in any of the transactions referred to in paragraphs 71(a) to (h), those disbursements are deemed to be a single disbursement of $10,000 or more if the casino knows that

- (a) the disbursements are requested by the same person or entity;
- (b) the disbursements are received by the same person or entity;
- (c) the disbursements are requested on behalf of the same person or entity; or
- (d) the disbursements are received on behalf of the same person or entity.

Reports

131 (1) A report that is required to be made to the Centre under these Regulations shall be sent electronically in accordance with guidelines that are prepared by the Centre, if the sender has the technical capabilities to do so.

(2) The report shall be sent in paper format in accordance with guidelines that are prepared by the Centre, if the sender does not have the technical capabilities to send the report electronically.

(3) For greater certainty, although items in Schedules 1 to 6 are described in the singular, a person or entity shall report all known information that falls within an item.

132 (1) A report that is required to be made under these Regulations in respect of an electronic funds transfer shall be sent to the Centre within five working days after the day on which the person or entity initiates or finally receives the electronic funds transfer, as the case may be.

(2) A report that is required to be made under these Regulations in respect of a receipt of an amount in virtual currency shall be sent to the Centre within five working days after the day on which the person or entity transfers or receives the amount, as the case may be.

(3) A report that is required to be made under these Regulations in respect of a receipt of an amount in cash or in respect of a disbursement referred to in section 71 shall be sent to the Centre within 15 days after the day on which the person or entity receives the amount or makes the disbursement, as the case may be.

Transactions Conducted by Employees and Authorized Persons and Entities

133 (1) For greater certainty, if a person who is subject to these Regulations is an employee of a person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (l) of the Act, it is the employer rather than the employee that is responsible for complying with these Regulations.

(2) For greater certainty, if a person or entity that is subject to these Regulations, other than a life insurance broker or agent, is authorized to act on behalf of another person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (l) of the Act in any capacity, including as an agent or mandatary, it is that other person or entity rather than the authorized person or entity that is responsible for complying with these Regulations.

148 (1) A person or entity that is required to keep records under these Regulations shall keep those records for a period of at least five years after

(a) the day on which the account to which they relate is closed, in the case of signature cards, account operating agreements, account applications, credit card applications, records setting out the intended use of the account and records that are required to be kept under paragraph 12(k) or subsection 123(1);

(b) the day on which the last business transaction is conducted, in the case of information records, certificates of incorporation, records that are required to be filed annually under applicable provincial securities legislation and similar records that prove a corporation's existence, partnership agreements, articles of association and similar records that prove the existence of an entity other than a corporation, records that are required to be kept under any of subsections 16(2), 123(2) and (3) and 138(3) and (5) and lists and records, other than information records, that are required to be kept under section 37; and

(c) the day on which they were created, in the case of all other records.

(2) For greater certainty, if a record that is kept under these Regulations is the property of a person's employer or of a person or entity with which the person is in a contractual relationship, the person is not required to keep the record after the end of their employment or the contractual relationship.

149 Every record that is required to be kept under these Regulations shall be kept in such a way that it can be provided to an authorized person within 30 days after the day on which a request is made to examine it under section 62 of the Act.

PART 6

Exceptions

Payment Card Processing Activities

150 Sections 7, 10 to 14, 16, 85 to 88 and 116, subsections 123(1) and (2), sections 135, 138 and 145 and subsection 148(1) do not apply to the activities of a financial entity in respect of the processing for a merchant of payments by credit card or prepaid payment product.

Requirements with Respect to Virtual Currency

151 (1) For greater certainty, paragraphs 7(1)(d), section 11, paragraphs 12(r) to (t), 13(h) and 14(1)(j) to (l), sections 19, 21, 26 and 28, paragraphs 30(1)(f), section 32, paragraph 33(1)(f), section 35, paragraphs 36(g), (h) and (j), sections 40, 42, 49, 51, 55, 57, 61, 63, 67 and 69, paragraph 70(1)(d) and sections 73, 79 and 81 do not apply to

(a) a transfer or receipt of virtual currency as compensation for the validation of a transaction that is recorded in a distributed ledger; or

(b) an exchange, transfer or receipt of a nominal amount of virtual currency for the sole purpose of validating another transaction or a transfer of information.

(2) In this section, distributed ledger means a digital ledger that is maintained by multiple persons or entities and that can only be modified by a consensus of those persons or entities.

Requirement To Report Information

152 (1) The requirement to report information set out in any of Schedules 1 to 6 does not apply in respect of information set out in an item of that Schedule that is not marked with an asterisk if, after taking reasonable measures to do so, the person or entity is unable to obtain the information.

(2) The requirement to report information set out in any of Schedules 1 to 4 and 6 does not apply in respect of information set out in an item of that Schedule that is marked with an asterisk if

(a) the information is with respect to two or more cash transactions referred to in section 126, electronic funds transfers referred to in section 127 or 128, virtual currency transactions referred to in section 129 or disbursements referred to in section 130 that are deemed to be a single transaction of $10,000 or more; and

(b) after taking reasonable measures to do so, the person or entity is unable to obtain the information.

(3) For greater certainty, a person or entity is not required to report information set out in any item of Schedules 1 to 6 that is not applicable in the circumstances.

Requirement To Include Information in a Record

153 A person or entity that is required to keep a record under these Regulations is not required to include information in that record that is readily obtainable from other records that they are required to keep under these Regulations.

Other Requirements

154 (1) Subparagraphs 86(a)(i) and (ii), paragraphs 87(a), 89(a) and (d), 94(a), 103(a) and 116(1)(a) and subsections 116(2) and (3) and 119(1) to (3) do not apply in respect of

(a) a business account, if the financial entity, securities dealer or casino has already verified the identity of at least three persons who are authorized to give instructions in respect of the account;

(b) a person who already has an account with the financial entity, securities dealer or casino, as the case may be; or

(c) an account that is opened at the request of an entity for the deposit by a life insurance company that is affiliated with the entity of a death benefit under a life insurance policy or annuity if

(i) the account is opened in the name of a beneficiary that is a person,

(ii) only that death benefit may be deposited into the account, and

(iii) the policy or annuity contract under which the claim for the death benefit is made has been in existence for a period of at least two years before the day on which the claim is made; and

(d) an account that is opened for the sale of mutual funds if there are reasonable grounds to believe that identity has been verified in accordance with subsection 105(1) by a securities dealer in respect of

(i) the sale of the mutual funds for which the account has been opened, or

(ii) a transaction that is part of a series of transactions that includes that sale.

(2) Sections 12 to 14, 22, 29, 43, 45 and 52, subsection 58(1), sections 64, 74, 82, 86 to 89, 92, 94, 96, 97 and 100, subsection 101(1) and sections 102 to 104, 116, 117, 119 and 123 do not apply in respect of

(a) the sale of an exempt policy as defined in subsection 306(1) of the Income Tax Regulations;

(b) the sale of a group life insurance policy that does not provide for a cash surrender value or a savings component;

(c) the sale of an immediate or deferred annuity that is paid for entirely with funds that are directly transferred from a registered pension plan or from a pension plan that is required to be registered under the Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985, or similar provincial legislation;

(d) the sale of a registered annuity policy or a registered retirement income fund;

(e) the sale of an immediate or deferred annuity that is paid for entirely with the proceeds of a group life insurance policy;

(f) a transaction that is part of a reverse mortgage or structured settlement;

(g) the opening of an account for the deposit and sale of shares from a corporate demutualization or the privatization of a Crown corporation;

(h) the opening of an account in the name of an affiliate of a financial entity, if the affiliate carries out activities that are similar to those of persons and entities referred to in paragraphs 5(a) to (g) of the Act;

(i) the opening of a registered plan account, including a locked-in retirement plan account, a registered retirement savings plan account and a group registered retirement savings plan account;

(j) the opening of an account established in accordance with the escrow requirements of a Canadian securities regulator or Canadian stock exchange or provincial legislation;

(k) the opening of an account if the account holder or settlor is a pension fund that is regulated under federal or provincial legislation;

(l) the opening of an account in the name of, or in respect of which instructions are authorized to be given by, a financial entity, a securities dealer, a life insurance company or an investment fund that is regulated under provincial securities legislation;

(m) a public body;

(n) a corporation or trust that has minimum net assets of $75 million on its last audited balance sheet, whose shares or units are traded on a Canadian stock exchange or a stock exchange designated under subsection 262(1) of the Income Tax Act and that operates in a country that is a member of the Financial Action Task Force;

(o) a subsidiary of a public body referred to in paragraph (m) or a corporation or trust referred to in paragraph (n) whose financial statements are consolidated with the financial statements of that public body, corporation or trust; or

(p) the opening of an account solely in the course of providing accounting services to a securities dealer.

(3) A financial entity, securities dealer, life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent is not required to verify the identity of, or to keep a signature card for, a person who is a member of a group plan account or to determine whether they are a politically exposed foreign person, a politically exposed domestic person or a head of an international organization, or a family member — referred to in subsection 2(1) — of, or a person who is closely associated with, one of those persons if

(a) the member's contributions are made by the sponsor of the plan or by means of payroll deductions; and

(b) the identity of the plan sponsor has been verified in accordance with subsection 109(1) or 112(1).

(4) Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if a person or entity conducts or attempts to conduct a transaction that is required to be reported to the Centre under section 7 of the Act.

155 (1) If a person or entity verifies a person's identity in accordance with subsection 105(1) and complies with section 108 — or if, before the coming into force of this subsection, they ascertained a person's identity in accordance with these Regulations, and complied with the related record-keeping provisions, as they read at the time — they are not required to verify the person's identity again unless they have doubts about the information that was used for that purpose.

(2) If a person or entity verifies a corporation's identity in accordance with subsection 109(1) — or if, before the coming into force of this subsection, they confirmed the corporation's existence and ascertained its name and address and the names of its directors in accordance with these Regulations, and complied with the related record-keeping provisions, as they read at the time — they are not required to verify it again unless they have doubts about the information that was used for that purpose.

(3) If a person or entity verifies the identity of an entity other than a corporation in accordance with subsection 112(1) — or if, before the coming into force of this subsection, they confirmed the entity's existence in accordance with these Regulations, and complied with the related record-keeping provisions, as they read at the time — they are not required to verify it again unless they have doubts about the information that was used for that purpose.

(4) If a person or entity determines that a person is a politically exposed foreign person or a family member, referred to in subsection 2(1), of such a person — or if, before the coming into force of this subsection, they determined that a person is a politically exposed foreign person, as defined in subsection 9.3(3) of the Act as it read at the time the determination was made — they are not required to make the determination again.
